

KEVIN ISBELL

INTERIORS

A decade after launching his eponymous New York City-based interior design business, Kevin Isbell has departed for Los Angeles, where he and his firm currently reside. Despite his new California roots, Isbell maintains a clientele between both coasts and retains his signature East Coast aesthetic, which is clean, layered and highly nuanced. His design point-of-view is firmly rooted in contemporary living, paying homage to the past with a modern twist that lends a fresh new perspective to each of his projects.

Fueled by his love of travel, Isbell artfully merges his clients' personal artifacts with his own inspiration, derived from worldly periods and cultures. The result: an emotive space with design elements that are at once elegant, timeless and utterly livable.

Named Rising Star of Interior Design by the International Furnishings and Design Association, Isbell and his firm's work has earned praise from leading publications such as The New York Times, Architectural Digest, House Beautiful, Traditional Home, Coastal Living as well as Susanna Salk's book published by Rizzoli, Be Your Own Decorator: Taking Inspiration and Cues from Today's Top Designers.
