

Thomas M. Kirchhoff, AIA, NCARB

Thomas Kirchhoff is a registered architect and the principal of Kirchhoff & Associates Architects (K&AA). Tom graduated from the University of Miami with a Bachelor of Architecture. He has worked in Palm Beach since 1983 and established his firm in 1994.

His career has focused on custom residential design for more than 30 years. Referencing inspiration from architects such as Maurice Fatio and John Volk, Tom's designs blend Palm Beach's stylistic traditions with the lifestyle of the modern client. His approach to design revolves around three basic principles: siting, transparency, and detailing. His goal is to create a sense of unity throughout a home by creating an intimate relationship between interior and exterior spaces. Recognized for creativity in a variety of styles, whether traditional or contemporary, he is best known for a strong command of classical design principles. Tom has earned numerous awards for original designs as well as historic restorations.
